Introduction

You have been given this leaflet as you have been chosen for a criteria-led discharge process.

What is criteria-led discharge?

Criteria-led discharge (CLD) is a process where the ward team work with you to make sure your discharge from hospital is safe and focussed on you. Discharge from hospital happens when your on-going care or treatment does not need to take place in hospital. At this point the healthcare team will have confirmed you have met your goals as an inpatient. The term 'goal' refers to what the healthcare team want you to achieve for your own health needs to help you to leave hospital.

Criteria-led discharge goals may include:

- Ability to transfer safely. This does not always mean walking but means you can safely move (transfer) from bed to a chair and so on with any equipment it is felt meets your needs. It can mean that your rehabilitation can safely be given in another place in the community.
- Your blood pressure and temperature are normal for you.
- The best place for you to go to is ready.

- Your blood levels are within acceptable limits.

When your goals are reached they will be recorded in your medical notes.

Benefits to you

- You and your family can plan ahead for leaving hospital.
- You will know what needs to happen before you leave.
- You will not stay in hospital any longer than you need to.
- You will be discharged from hospital before midday.

The criteria-led discharge process

- The process clearly outlines the goals both you and your ward team need you to complete during your stay. This is based on the reason you were admitted to hospital.

How will I know I have met the goals related to my care?

A senior member of the team who has been trained in criteria-led discharge will talk to you every day about your goals. They will confirm that you have met all the goals for discharge. If there are no outstanding issues you will be able to leave the hospital without seeing your doctor for a final time.

If there are any concerns at any stage of your journey the team will contact the doctor to review you.

Will my hospital doctor be involved in decisions about my care?

Yes, your hospital doctor has set the goals (criteria) of what needs to be achieved for your discharge and will have overall responsibility for your care whilst in hospital.

Before you leave the hospital

Please make sure you or your next of kin:

- Understands the plan for you to manage after discharge, for example, medications, dressings, changes to outpatient appointments and names contact numbers of any care packages.

- Make sure your property is suitable for your return and you have keys for your property.

On the day of discharge you may be taken to our Discharge Lounge where your medications will be given to you. Your family or hospital transport can collect you.

The discharge lounge is a nurse led environment, with qualified and experienced nurses, health care assistants and other key staff within the team. See leaflet 293

Discharge from the ward

Please consider the following when preparing for your discharge from the ward:

- Do I have suitable clothing to travel in?
- Have I arranged transport?
- Do I have money for a taxi?
- Do I have access to my home/ keys/ key safe number?
- Do I need a sick note before leaving the ward?
- Do I have my discharge letter and medication?

After discharge

- You will be sent a text message or email giving you a link to contact the ward if you have any issues related to you recent hospital stay.
- If you do not have a mobile or email please tell the ward staff and they will give you a contact number.
- It can be used for 7 days. After this time you should contact your GP. (If your symptoms are life threatening contact 999).
